

Masters of LINEN™ certified Chain of Custody with subcontracting

1. All spinners, fancy spinners, weavers or knitters must be Masters of LINEN™ certified
2. All non-Masters of LINEN™ steps must be Masters of FLAX FIBRE™ certified, or Masters of LINEN™ Chain of Custody certified at the last B2B transaction
3. All sites are in Europe* until finished fabric, including subcontractors.

*Eligible European countries are EU countries, the UK and Switzerland. With one Masters of LINEN™ founder spinner site in Tunisia.

4. Masters of LINEN™ Core activities are spinning, fancy spinning, weaving and knitting (circular and flatbed). Masters of LINEN™ Core activities shall only be subcontracted by a Masters of LINEN™ company to a Masters of LINEN™ company.

5. Masters of LINEN™ Non-Core activities can be subcontracted by a Masters of LINEN™ certified company to a non-certified company.

For example: yarn/roving dyeing/bleaching/twisting/covering, winding, warping, yarn/fabric/end product dyeing, printing, finishing, end product manufacturing.